Dear Friends of Human Rights,

We are thrilled to announce a monumental event in the history of the International Association of Official Human Rights Agencies (IAOHRA): our 75th Annual Conference, themed “Creating A Human Rights Culture.” This prestigious event will be held in St. Louis, Missouri, from August 11-15, 2024, at the Royal Sonesta Chase Park Plaza Hotel, located at 212 N. Kingshighway Blvd., St. Louis, MO 63108.

For 75 years, IAOHRA has been the beacon of hope and justice, uniting and empowering state and local government civil and human rights agencies across our nation and beyond. As the only network of its kind, IAOHRA serves over 250 million people, tirelessly promoting and protecting their civil and human rights. Our member agencies, established by statute, enforce federal, state, county, and municipal anti-discrimination laws in employment, housing, and public accommodations. We are dedicated to education, training, and community engagement to foster a healthier, more just society.

Our mission is to transform the landscape of human rights by providing forums for the exchange of groundbreaking ideas and critical information among member agencies and human rights advocates. We are committed to expanding and elevating services and programs that ensure respect for human dignity becomes a reality for all. Through innovative programs on human rights and civil rights issues, IAOHRA serves as a global leader and clearinghouse for information exchange among human rights and relations agencies.

We are reaching out to invite you or your organization to join us as a sponsor of our 2024 IAOHRA Conference in St. Louis. Your sponsorship is not just a contribution; it is a powerful statement of your commitment to human rights. As a sponsor, your organization will enjoy unparalleled visibility and prestige.
